

Would You Like My Team Of Experts And I To Personally Build An Entire $10,000 Per Month Online Business FOR You?

From the desk of James Francis.
London, UK.

Dear Friend,

We all know that an automated system that converts traffic into subscribers, then those subscribers into sales in a dependable, consistent and profitable way is the holy grail of an online business.

But there's a problem.

For this to happen, you need to build a lot of complex elements.

We're talking squeeze pages, email lists, download pages, blogs, members areas, content delivery pages, sales pages, traffic campaigns and a whole lot more.

This leaves most people feeling overwhelmed by all the technical steps and stranded without a lifeline.

And that's assuming you have the many hours of spare time required to get it all done in the first place!

Maybe you can relate?

This kind of situation needs more than just a "one size fits all" video course or PDF, because your online business is unique to you.

That's why from today, I'm going to build an entire $10,000 per month online business for just three people on my email list.

I'll start by consulting with you to find out what you want you'd like your business to be about (or help you decide on that if you're not sure yet)...

... then I'll do all of the work from scratch (or build on what you have so far if you already have something online)...

... and hand you the keys to the online business when it's making $10,000 in NET profit per month, for at least six consecutive months.

You'll get access to my entire team of experts (which I pay over $10k per month for), along with me personally as your coach and lead project manager throughout the whole process.

This is by far the most transformational opportunity I've ever put together, and won't be repeated again in the future.

At this point you probably have a few questions, but let's start with the obvious one...

Why Am I Doing This?

Between you and me, quite frankly it gets a little boring when you're working in the same niche all the time.

As an entrepreneur, I want to keep myself interested by profiting in more markets so I can better help my other coaching clients with their businesses.

Plus, one of my existing clients is taking a long vacation with his earnings, which has opened up a slot in my schedule.

Here's What Happens When We Decide To Work Together...

On day one, if you don't have anything online yet, that's fine! We can start from complete scratch. No ideas, no niche, no email list, no products, no authority status. You just need commitment and a goal you'd like to achieve.

Or if you do already have something online (e.g. a website, products, etc), I'll review it and see if we can use it, or if it needs to be re-created to get the best results possible.

Then either way, I'll get to work immediately on setting up your online business in the correct way to make a huge profit.

More specifically...

First, if you haven't chosen a niche yet, we'll talk about your ideas and come up with a good one. But if you do, I'll dive deeply into your online business to find out the demographics (the physical characteristics of your audience like age, gender, location and so on) and psychographics (what your prospects think and feel) to create a solid business plan that gives people what they want.

Often as entrepreneurs we focus on what WE want to create, but forget about what the prospects actually want, resulting in zero sales. Doing this exercise properly prevents that.

Next, we'll create a "lead magnet" based on the careful research, and make it so compelling to people that they'd crawl over broken glass to get it.

This will be a short PDF report which fits into a specific framework that made us over $500k in profit last year alone.

Although this content needs to be written in your writing style (so it positions YOU as the authority figure and not me), it's only the length of a short article – and I'll even tell you what to write.

Next, I'll create a sales funnel around this free content including a compliant medium-length squeeze page with a huge opt-in rate, one-time offer, content delivery page, and more.

All of this process will be designed to get your ideal customers to consume your content while buying based on your recommendation.

After that, I'll set up an email follow-up sequence for you which reacts based on the behaviour of your subscribers.

This way, it prevents your subscribers from "burning out" while maximizing sales in the process.

With this drip-fed follow-up sequence in place, it converts the fence sitters into loyal customers for multiple products, so your profit per customer increases over time.

I'll also create an entire compelling sales funnel for your best-selling product line too.

We're talking about the front-end offer sales page, upsell sales pages, order form set up and integration with one-click upsells, members area, private community, our proven customer email retention sequence to drop your refund rates to rock bottom and a whole lot more.

(Again, you'll need to create the content in your own "voice", but I'll tell you exactly what to create and do it with you.)

Once your proven automated system is in place, I'll set up a dependable and scalable traffic campaign so you generate subscribers and customers on demand.

Finally, my expert team and I will personally tweak, test and optimize everything until it's making a positive Return On Investment (ROI), then scale the whole thing until you're making $10,000 per month.

This whole machine will just need about 10-30 minutes of tweaking per day after that – and even then, I'll coach you on what to do until you're 100% confident with how to use everything.

I hope you'll agree that's not too shabby for a $10,000 per month income.

On top of doing the work for you, I'll also coach you on what we're doing and why, so you're free to apply what you learn to other businesses if you want to.

You also keep all the rights to everything we create and set up for you, as it'll all be under your name, not ours.

When Can I Expect To See Results?

Obviously this is a VERY premium offer which takes up a lot of my time and effort – and my entire team's time and effort too – with a very sought-after outcome.

(As you know, $10,000 per month businesses don't get handed out on a platter every day!)

Although our lawyers say we legally can't give you a specific time frame, after launching your project (this depends on how quickly you give us the content we need from you), some of our other clients have reached $1,000 per month in profit by the end of month one or two (after ironing out any kinks in your sales funnel), then $5,000 per month in profit by the end of month 3-5 (depending on your available budget), and $10,000 per month in profit by the end of month 6-10 (again, depending on many factors).

And when you do make $10,000 in a single calendar month – the service doesn't stop there...

If you want to, you can continue have us run the business for you, ensuring your income stays above $10,000 in profit every month. But that's totally up to you.

It'll all be legally-binding with a contract, so you're guaranteed to get what I promise by law.

This way, you risk nothing.

Regarding your investment...

Here's How Much It Costs When You Decide You Want Me To Build You A $10,000 Per Month Online Business

In the event we decide to work together after our initial phone conversation, my entire team of experts and I immediately start building everything I've described above.

The total cost for everything – the “deep dive” niche research, lead acquisition process, positive ROI traffic campaign, behaviour-based email marketing sequences, paid members areas, product sales pages, upsell sales pages, back-end offers and more – all uniquely built and installed for you and optimized to be reaching $10,000 USD in net profit per month, plus the on-demand consulting and the weekly live calls is just $3,000 USD per month, whenever you need our help.

No, that's not a typo. Yes, that is a great price – especially considering you'd pay a personal assistant more than that amount for their monthly wage.

And yes, that's enough to fit on most credit cards while we're building this income generating asset together, if you need to.

The only requirement is that you stay for at least 3 months so it gives us chance to get you the results we're promising.

From there, it's a rolling monthly agreement, and you can drop in and out of the service at any time that suits you, whenever you need some extra help.

I'm able to offer this as a relatively low monthly price because when you see the massive value we provide to you in this service and the life-changing results you're getting, you'll never want to leave :-)

(Most of my business has always come from repeat customers.)

As you can imagine, the demand for this service is currently VERY high, and at the great price I just mentioned, all three spots will get snapped up very quickly.

So if you're interested...

Here's What To Do Next

First, I'd like to get to know you and what goals you have for your online business.

Then if I can help you achieve those goals, we can go through any questions you have and talk about accepting you into this service.

So to schedule your initial one-on-one phone conversation with me personally (not some team member or crony), I'd like you to complete a short and quick questionnaire about yourself which helps me to get prepared for when we talk together.

And no – it won't ask about anything intrusive or complicated.

Just what your online business is selling (or what you want it to sell), and how you want it to look when it's profitable.

If you haven't gotten started yet, that's cool too (and is sometimes better as we can work from a level playing field). Just let me know.

This feedback helps me to create a plan for you, so we can cover it in our chat to hit the ground running and make progress instantly.

Then I'll personally email you within 48 hours to schedule a chat at a time that suits you, so we can go over your plans and see if I can help you.

Don't worry – you WON'T be contacted by telemarketers or anyone weird like that.

As you already know me, you'll know I don't do anything unethical like that and don't use "outsourced" people in call centers.

My entire focus is to see if I can actually help you, and give you realistic expectations about your results from us working together.

If you want to become a client, great! And if not, no pressure.

Here's The Catch You've Been Looking For

It's pretty simple.

We can't (and won't) work with just anyone.

So we can be a good fit for each other, there are a few house rules...

1) You must not ask me to create something unethical.

So if you're into selling porn, gambling, "get rich quick" type offers or anything illegal, this opportunity isn't for you.

I only work with ethical people who actually want to help their customers and make a positive difference in the world.

2) This isn't really suited to all business types.

Because most of the campaigns are built around the latest direct-response principles, the stuff you'd like to sell needs to be either a digital product or service.

(That's how we get results quickly.)

So if you're selling physical products on Amazon or your grandma's panties on eBay, this opportunity probably isn't for you.

Ready to get started?

Here's What To Do Next...

Step #1 – Go here to complete the short questionnaire. It'll only take a few minutes.

Step #2 – I'll review your questionnaire, and if it doesn't look like I can help you, I won't waste your time by having a conversation about it.

Instead, I'll immediately let you know via email.

And assuming I do think we can help you, I'll reach out to you via email from my personal email address within a few working hours to schedule a time to talk.

However, the application process closes at midnight tonight, so I'd recommend doing this now before you miss out.

Thanks for taking the time to read this, and I'm looking forward to working together soon.

Hope to talk with you soon!
